Develop the Characters

What do they look like?

What kind of clothes do they wear?

How do they walk?

What do they want to achieve in the story?

Why do they have this goal?

Interests, hobbies, or passion?

Personality- what would their friends say about them?

Strengths, skills, weakness?

What bad habit do they do when they are nervous?

Give your character a personality trait that they show to the world, but in moments of panic, desperation, vulnerability, they actually show the opposite. What are these two opposing character traits?
